LEAGUE PRESENTED EVIDENCE WHICH WAS PROMISED

COUNCIL CONSIDERED IT NOT SUFFICIENT TO REVOKE A SALOON LICENSE.

WARM DISCUSSION IN MEETING

Wine Rooms Voted Out of Existence and City Laws Hereafter Will Be Rigidly Enforced.

Probably the largest audience that has ever gathered at a session of the city council of Dixon was present on Friday evening to see what action would be taken in regard to the charges brought against certain saloon keepers by the Citizens' Law and Order league for violations of the ordinances. The visitors, however, were excluded from a most interesting part of the meeting—the executive session of the council where the evidence was presented. At this session everybody was excluded except the members of the council, a large committee from the league, a saloon keeper against whom charges were preferred, his attorney and the witnesses to the violations of the ordinance.

Wine Rooms Abolished.

The only real work accomplished at the meeting by the council along the line of reforms was the passing of an ordinance abolishing wine rooms, which was ordered drawn by Mayor Edwards. This was passed by a vote of six to four, those voting against the ordinance being Aldermen Gage, Schorr, Stephan and Whalen. The motion to pass the ordinance was put by Alderman Watts and seconded by Ald. Smith. Following is the text of the ordinance: "It is hereby declared unlawful for any person licensed to conduct a dram shop in the city of Dixon or the agents, servants or employees of any such person, to sell, offer for sale, or serve any intoxicating liquors in more than one room under one license, nor shall any dram shop keeper establish, maintain or conduct any wine room or other room or compartment or enclosure, or partial enclosure, within, entering into or connected with the barroom in which such dram shop is located and used for the purpose of serving drinks therein, or for the use or convenience of the patrons or customers of such dram shop.

"Any person violating the provisions of this ordinance or any person, firm or corporation suffering or permitting any of its agents, etc., to do so shall upon conviction be liable to a fine of not less than five nor more than $200 for each offense and to an additional fine of $5 for each and every day such violation shall continue after the first conviction."

Fight On Saloon License.

The real fight of the evening developed upon the reading of an ordinance to revoke dram shop license No. 207, granted to Wm. J. Kennedy, to operate a saloon at 107 Peoria avenue upon the grounds of "complaints well founded" that the provisions of the dram shop ordinance had been violated.

Alderman Gaffney moved that the ordinance to revoke the license be referred to the license committee to investigate and report at the next meeting.

Not Bad; Could Be Better.

Before this motion was put to a vote there was a stormy debate engaged in by aldermen, preachers and attorneys which served to throw much light upon conditions in Dixon if it did not bring about the result that members of the Law and Order league had hoped.

The committee proved that there are violations of law in Dixon. These should be stopped and the league is to be commended for its efforts to have them stopped. The result of the investigations prove, however, that Dixon is cleaner in regard to violations of law than the majority of cities of its size in the country. The detective who has been here working to secure evidence stated to the mayor of the city that Dixon is the cleanest city he has investigated for the past six years.

We may take pride in this, but we should strive at the same time to make the city cleaner, and the Law and Order league should be upheld in its work so long as it proceeds along right lines.

Much Eloquence Wasted.

The law enforcement committee presented evidence to the city council that two boys under age had purchased beer at the saloon of Wm. J. Kennedy. This is a violation of the

REV. McLEAN, NEWTON, RUTHERFORD, BILLINGS AND DR. BLACKMAN DEFENDANT

LEECH AND CAHILL FILE SUIT

Young Men Say They Were Slandered—Accused of Buying Liquor On Sunday.

Monday morning of next week two slander suits, each asking for $10,000 damages, will be filed in the Lee county circuit court against Rev. Dr. C. C. McLean, pastor of the Methodist church; Rev. W. L. Rutherford, pastor of the English Lutheran church; Rev. W. A. Billings, pastor of the Baptist church; Rev. Joseph Fort Newton, pastor of the People's church, and Dr. O. B. Blackman, one of Dixon's most prominent physicians.

Attorney William L. Leech is the complainant in one suit and Edward Cahill, chief clerk in the Dixon post-office, is the complainant in the other. Both Mr. Leech and Mr. Cahill, it is alleged, have been accused by the defendants as having purchased liquor in the Nachusa house saloon, conducted by Dennis Carroll, between the hours of 8:45 and 10 o'clock on Sunday morning, March 18. The charges were put in writing and handed to Mayor I. F. Edwards.

Detective Here.

The Law and Order league, of which society the defendants are prominent and active workers, is accused of having a detective here from Chicago, named P. L. Kohl, and it is said that he was present in the saloon on the aforesaid Sunday morning and participated in the drinking of the liquor. Detective Kohl, it is said, gave this evidence to the defendants, who had the evidence put in writing and delivered to Mayor Edwards.

Deny Accusations.

Both young men deny that they were in the said saloon on the aforesaid date, and furthermore they say they are able to prove the charges false.

Messrs. Leech and Cahill have employed Attorneys Smith and Trusdell to look after their interests in the matter.

Rev. McLean Speaks.

Rev. McLean, when seen this afternoon, said: "I have been told that such suits will be started. I am glad of it. Now the evidence against saloons will be brought out, which heretofore has not been brought to light. I for one will say that I made no charges against the two young men in question."

Rev. Billings when called up by phone, said: "I know nothing about such case." Mr. Billings was told that such was the case. Now what have you to say? "Nothing, sir; nothing."

Newton Is Pleased.

Rev. Newton, when called up by phone, said: "I am glad the suits are to be filed. I am not in the least scared."

Rev. Rutherford could not be reached, as he was busy teaching a class in the church.

Dr. O. B. Blackman when seen, said he knew nothing about a slander suit. "However, I don't care; let 'em sue," said the doctor.

Chicago Paper Tells Story.

This morning's Inter-Ocean had the following to say about the Dixon crime crusade:

Dixon, Ill., April 7.—As the result of a crime crusade, William C. Leech, a lawyer, has informed the Rev. C. C. McLean of the Methodist church and former pastor of the Oak Park Methodist church, that he intends to sue him and his associates in the Law and Order league for slander.

The pastors told the mayor that Leech and others were in a saloon drinking on Sunday morning. Leech furnished witnesses who said he was elsewhere at the time. The pastors were asked to apologize but refused.

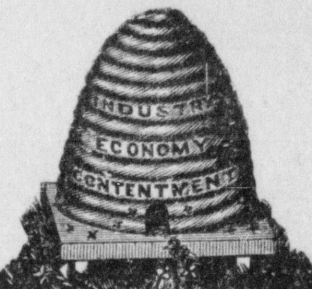

DAMAGE SUIT FILED.

Jno. Ives has commenced, through his attorneys, Trusdell & Smith, a suit against James T. Brunsfield of Chicago for $10,000 damages. The complaint is trespass on the case.

BOYS BREAK TILE.

The boys who break the tile of the West end sewer will be arrested if they do not cease their depredations.

TOWN OFFICERS WILL NOT BE SUED

NO ACTION WILL BE TAKEN AGAINST TOWN OFFICERS BY CITIZENS.

MATTER WILL BE LEFT TO STATE

Plenty of Evidence Has Been Secured But State Will Be Asked To Take Charge.

Since the township meeting held at the township election several citizens aided by competent legal advisors have been discussing the advisability of bringing suit against several of the township officials for the recovery of money that it is claimed has been illegally used by them.

Although those who have had the matter in charge claim that they have sufficient grounds for bringing such suit, yet they state that the matter will be left in the hands of the state's attorney, as it was decided that it was the duty of that official to take charge of the matter.

This will undoubtedly mean the end of the trouble, as probably no one will step forward and make charges on which to start legal proceedings.

ANNULS CALL OF STATE CONVENTION

CALLS FOR CONGRESSIONAL, SENATORIAL AND COUNTY CONVENTIONS BE ANNULLED

GOV. DENEEN AND YATES PRESENT

Administration Bill To Be Drafted By Attorney General Stead—Conference Tonight.

Springfield, April 7.—The republican state central committee met in this city today and by a unanimous vote adopted a resolution annulling the call issued for holding the state convention in this city, Monday, May 11, and ordering that no call for a state convention will be issued until a new primary election law has been passed by the general assembly. The resolution further requires that calls for congressional, senatorial, county and all other republican conventions throughout the state which were made by virtue of the primary election law just declared unconstitutional by the supreme court, be reconsidered and annulled, and that no calls for said conventions be issued until the general assembly shall have enacted a general primary election law and until the state central committee shall have issued another call.

Governor Deneen was present as committeeman from the third district and Richard Yates as proxy for Garrett Deforest McKinney of Peoria, representing the sixteenth district. The committee on primary election law met after the state committee adjourned, but took no action. Yates and his friends on the committee had a conference. The administration bill will be drafted by the attorney general, and that state central committee bill introduced at the late session of the general assembly will not be used as a basis for the new bill, as stated in some papers. Gov. Deneen will hold a conference with Attorney General Stead, Chairman West of the state committee, Lieut. Gov. Sherman, Senators Berry and Campbell, Speaker Shurtleff and Representative Rinaker, chairman of the house bill on primary election law tonight.

TO AILING WOMEN.

A Little Sound Advice Will Help Many a Sufferer in Dixon.

No woman can be healthy and well if the kidneys are sick. Poisons that pass off in the urine when the kidneys are well are retained in the body when the kidneys are sick. Kidneys and bladder get inflamed and swollen, crowding the delicate female organs nearby, and sometimes displacing them. This is the cause of many bearing-down pains, lameness, back-ache, sideache, etc. Uric poisoning also causes, dizzy spells, languor, nervousness and rheumatic pain.

When suffering so, try Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that cures sick kidneys. You will get better as the kidneys get better as the kidneys get better, and health will return when the kidneys are well. Let a Dixon woman tell you about Doan's Kidneys.

Mrs. E. E. Page of 604 Chamberlain St., North Dixon, says: "It gives me considerable pleasure to recommend a medicine which brings such quick and thorough relief as Doan's Kidney Pills. I went to Leake Bros. drug store for a box when suffering severely with pain in my back which clung to me persistently, far too long to be present. The treatment undoubtedly benefited me. I will be only too pleased to say a word for Doan's Kidney Pills when opportunities present themselves."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

OLD FASHIONED POLITICS.

Matters political have changed wonderfully during the life time of the senior editor of The Telegraph. We can remember the time in the political history of this country when a personal canvass for office was very objectionable—against what was considered good taste and common sense in political ethics. That is to say, it is recalled that should it be known publicly that a man had, without solicitation, become a candidate for office, that fact alone would cause his uncertain defeat. Should his friends "bring him out" nevertheless, a personal canvass on his part would result equally disastrous to his ambitions.

Should a man at that time have the audacity to make a personal canvass for an office of much dignity, it would be a clear case of "vaulting ambition o'er leaping itself."

In our early boyhood we well remember the personal disappointment experienced in the defeat of Henry Clay, nominated by the Whig party, for president. He was considered then, as later, a great statesman, and it is believed today that he was one of the greatest in our national history and was politically very well beloved.

His defeat by a man unknown to fame—remembered in history now as a mediocre president—was a mystery to our boyish mind until it was explained that Henry Clay's defeat was caused by the fact that the voters believed his anxiety for an office of such sacred dignity was ungracious and not to be endorsed.

There was an unwritten law, in a political point of view, that was considered somewhat sacred, that "The office should seek the man and not the man ask for the office."

We remember so popular was this custom—to illustrate indirect effects—that when Mr. Seymour of New York had repeatedly refused to become a candidate for president, the democratic party went wild over such an indication of political modesty; and he was nominated, no less volens, by acclamation at a national convention; for the tide in his favor was simply irresistible. Even democrats in those days belived in modesty.

It was urged by opponents of Mr. Seymour that the modesty was not genuine, but still, so well established was custom favorable to political modesty that it was deemed well for a man, as Hamlet suggested to his mother, to "assume a virtue though you have it not;" as a most excellent substitute for the real thing in politics.

It is not very long ago that Jas. G. Blaine, a presidential nominee, would have been elected president had he not undertaken a personal campaign—though his electioneering tour was brief.

As some sort of an excuse for the present unseemly senatorial contention, politicians and speakers frequently recall the series of joint debates between Stephen A. Douglas and Abraham Lincoln, the former being a candidate for re-election. The gentleman now desiring Cullom's seat is fond of such reference.

Such thoughts indicate the very careless, mistaken notions to which we have fallen in political matters.

Why this personal canvass over the state of a man desiring, almost begging to be elected senator, should be compared to the Douglas-Lincoln debate, we do not understand.

The political incidents that lead up to that famous contest are fresh in memory for the reason that we then fully realized their great importance. It was not (though Douglas was a candidate himself) in any sense a contest for the election of United States senator; it was entirely a question between slavery and freedom. When republicans selected Mr. Lincoln as the man to answer Senator Douglas, there was not much thought as to the question of choosing a senator. The mere selfish, personal, mercenary matter of who should wear the senatorial toga was not of the slightest importance compared with the mighty issues debated by Lincoln and Douglas.

All the circumstances are so vastly different that we do not understand why reference is made to that history of 1858 statesmanship with this personal wrangle of today that has hardly a single feature by which it may be compared to a great occasion. Douglas, with the aid of pro-slavery democrats, had repealed the Missouri Compromise—an act of congress excluding slavery from certain territory. There was great indignation at this effort to extend slavery into the territories. He came home to explain his very foolish political act; considered by his constituents a crime of such magnitude to justify the organization of a new party, and the republican organization resulted.

Senator Douglas came from Washington to explain; to give reasons for the repeal of what was considered a sacred law. His first speech was delivered (or attempted) in Chicago.

The indignation of the people can be understood when we state that at the hour named for the meeting, there commenced the tolling of every church bell in the city. It would appear (with apologies to Hood)—that every sexton in Chicago had been told of the proposed speech and they "went and told their bells." Not only tolled, but clanged and banged and whanged them until in the ears of the great senator and his friends, was heard a political death knell. They could truly "Hear the loud alarm bells."

The clanging of the bells was not all of the senator's troubles. His own partisans—Free Soil Democrats—jeered and hooted, and propounded pertinent and impertinent questions until he was unable to finish his speech. This was about the year 1854. The great senator was introduced to the people at the meeting by Isaac Cook, then postmaster at Chicago, afterwards head of the great wine company at St. Louis, bearing his name. Mr. Cook was evidently mad as he introduced Mr. Douglas, as these words indicate:

"Fellow Citizens: Truth crushed to earth will rise again," and being put out by a jeering remark concerning the fact that truth was over-worked, and not having much to do with politics anyway, he hesitated; and was lost. But resuming, the speaker repeated: "Truth crushed to earth will rise again" (but forgetting the "eternal years," etc.) he improvised: "All hell can't stop 'er." "Truth crushed to earth will rise again—and all hell can't stop 'er," took the place of Bryant's elegant poetry for years after in offhand "familiar quotations." Douglas then commenced a canvass of the state.

In 1858 the republicans of Illinois insisted that the explanations of the senator should be explained by Lincoln and the result, after a number of speeches in Chicago and other cities by Lincoln, was the famous joint debate. Now to the point.

That canvass has no parallel in the present senatorial contention.

Read Mr. Lincoln's speeches at that time and you will find no suggestion that he is a better man for senator than Douglas. Though in hot debate, face to face, still not an unkind word was uttered by him against his opponent. There was no whine by him about opposition by federal crowds; except by Douglas who had trouble with the president—nor did either boast of having been offered bribes; nor tell of disgraceful political trade made with boss politicians. It was quite unlike the present canvass.

There was no latter day experience in producing gubernatorial halos.

Truly it is a great mistake to liken the present senatorial canvass with that of 1858. Now one of the supposed constituents is hard at work in Washington, attending faithfully to the duties of his office; looking after the interest of the American people with a care for all the citizens of Illinois; and the other is making speeches, the burden of whose talk is that he is a better man for the place than the senator who has filled the office so ably and in a most disinterested manner. As a matter of history, it is very absurd to compare the present senatorial contest with the Lincoln-Douglas debates. Then Lincoln talked of important, vital national affairs; and, indeed, the failure would have caused the ruin of this republic.

A question debated was not so much whether five million of people should continue in bondage or become free as it was whether new states about to be admitted should become slave territory or dedicated to freedom; this and others of like importance were the great questions debated by Lincoln and Douglas.

Lincoln had no political sores to exhibit, no political trickery to explain.

Now we have a contention started by a man who has caused more scandal than any citizen who ever held a high office in this or any state under republican rule; he himself asking for the great office of United States senator and giving no better reason for his cause than that the senators and congressmen from Illinois would very much prefer another man. The other man, Senator Cullom, has been honored by colleagues in that body and placed in positions of importance; none of the several great men of Illinois has sent to the senate have been so honored. We believe that the gentlemen who occupy seats in the United States senate are quite as competent to judge of Mr. Cullom's fitness for the office as any of his maligners.

However, our political ethics are perhaps a bit antiquated for present day methods. It appears to us that the only great principles involved in this present senatorial canvass are those of honesty and fitness; and truly, those are enough.

We have an idea that a man who has had great opportunities for accomplishing political reforms, but has utterly failed to act, does not indicate good taste in making stilted speeches anent reforms; desiring a great office that he may follow men who have accomplished good work in that line may be a laudable ambition, but should be a boast only after accomplishment. If Folk or LaFollette should find such a man "following them" they would no doubt have an inclination to turn and kick the political stuffing out of him.

There is now an effort being made to turn out a man who never follows; but leads, in statesmanship and in honesty, and his name is Shelby M. Cullom. Before us is a letter written by him last Monday, dated in his committee room at the national capitol, and his writing is proof positive that his pen is held in a steady hand; clearly indicating that the cruel insinuation of feebleness is utterly false.

Here is an incident worthy of serious consideration by any man of honor. It is too fresh to be classed as reminiscence, but it worthy of recalling as a warning:

After the great press combine of Chicago had published and cartooned a high official as a fool and grafter, it did not appear in good taste for that official to turn over to the afore-said editors full political control of our state. Nor does the excuse that these great newspapers did not publish facts, in the least modify the wretched self-stultifying by that official in committing an act that was only disgraceful to himself, but treacherous to the people who elected the delegates whose votes he bargained for, as he will find to be very much less valuable than a mess of pottage.

We have indications that your political gilded flies that bask in the sunshine of a former excellency's court and fed upon its corruption, have become so mentally paralyzed—an affliction probably similar to colorblindness—that they could not now recognize honesty should they see it coming down the street arm in arm with graft. They do not appear to understand the difference between a forced slush fund levied against crub forced slush fund levied against scrub tion, from a free-hearted contribution.

The distance from the light to the floor is nearly fifteen feet, and when it struck the floor the shade was broken into a thousand pieces. The children were playing directly under the light, but had just stepped from under the chandelier a second before the shade fell. For awhile there were two badly scared mothers, but the children of course never realized what they had escaped.

MANY AT CULLOM MEETING TODAY

THOUSANDS GATHER AT AMBOY TO HEAR THE HONORABLE WALTER REEVES.

DIXON WAS WELL REPRESENTED

Speaker Missed Railway Connections and Drove Overland From Mendota.

Hon. Walter Reeves of Streator, Ill., addressed a large crowd of voters at Amboy today, speaking in the interests of Shelby M. Cullom. Twenty of Dixon's most prominent politicians and citizens were in attendance at the meeting.

Reeves Drives Overland.

It looked for awhile as if the speaker would be unable to reach Amboy. A phone message was sent to Streator, and the answer came back that Mr. Reeves had left his home city early in the morning. At Mendota Mr. Reeves wired the committee that he would drive overland from that city.

Bardwell To Amboy.

Before locating Mr. Reeves the committee sent a message to Attorney A. C. Bardwell of this city to hurry to Amboy and deliver the address.

WILL STREET RAILWAY FRANCHISE BE REVOKED?

Papers Served On Vice President H. C. Higgins—Nine Charges of Violation.

Late Wednesday afternoon City Marshal Woodruff served upon the Sterling, Dixon and Eastern Electric Railway company a notice in which attention is called to the fact that the street car company has not lived up to the provisions of the ordinance, which was passed February 3, 1903. The contentions set forth in the notice were as follows:

First: That the company had not complied with the ordinance in a good many respects which are set forth. Further that if said company does not conform with the ordinance it will be considered, cause for revoking of the franchise which the city granted.

Second: That the company has violated the ordinance by not building and operating a car line on Depot avenue from Sixth street to the Northwestern depot.

Third: That the company has not built and operated a car line on Third street, from College avenue to Grant avenue, as agreed.

Fourth: That the company has not replaced the wooden joist under the sidewalk portion of the Galena avenue bridge, over Rock River, with steel supports, as was agreed.

Fifth: That the company has failed to live up to the part of the agreement, in regard to the placing in operation of modern cars and that the cars now in use by the company are not on a standard with those used in cities the size of Dixon.

Sixth: That the tracks are not properly ballasted in places and that in other places have been placed below the street level.

Seventh: That in a large number of places the company has not placed and maintained cross walks between the tracks, as provided for in the ordinance.

Eighth: That the company has failed to provide the cars operated in the city with proper fenders, as required by law.

Ninth: That the company has placed its tracks in such a manner in many places that they interfere with the proper draining of the streets.

Higgins Out of Town.

Vice President H. C. Higgins, upon whom service was made, could not be seen today on account of being out of the city. However, it is thought that the matter will be settled satisfactorily.

The notice was prepared by City Attorney John S. Dornblaser, who acted upon the instructions of Mayor Edwards.

ordinance, and according to the ordinance itself Mr. Kennedy is subject to a fine. The members of the council seemed to think, after much flow of eloquence in discussion, that there was not evidence of sufficient disorderly conduct in the saloon in question to warrant them in revoking the license, and the matter was referred to committee for further investigation.

Ordinance Provides Fine.

It was not until the discussions had all ceased that Rev. Newton asked that the section of the ordinance referring to the sale of liquor to minors be read, and it was then seen that no drastic measures could rightfully be taken upon the evidence presented. The section of the ordinance reads as follows:

Sec. 4. That no person shall within the city sell or offer to sell, give, deliver or dispose of in any manner, whether by himself, agent, or as agent, any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors to any minor, intoxicated person or habitual drunkard. Nor shall any person act as the agent of such minor, intoxicated person, or habitual drunkard in the purchase or obtaining of any such liquors. Any person violating this section shall upon conviction thereof be fined not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars for each offense.

The Question Argued.

When Alderman Gaffney's motion to refer the ordinance revoking Mr. Kennedy's license to the license committee was open for question, Alderman Gage took the floor and made an impassioned plea for fair play. He said he believed in fairness to all men whether he be a saloon keeper, a rag picker or a preacher. He said he believed in law and order and that no one ever saw him break a law; he never voted for a man to sell liquor but once in his life and that was in Oregon. "Here is this man Kennedy," he said, "a straight, upright man outside of selling liquor. He has got thousands of dollars invested here and the people have given him power to sell liquor. Here are a couple of boys brought before the council who say they sneaked into the saloon and bought beer. I go into saloons and I go into churches. I don't believe in taking away this man's license on the spur of the moment. There were four counts against the other fellow whose license was revoked. Any man who gives beer to another on the street or anywhere else is liable to the law. A man can be brought before the grand jury for violating the law, but the people of Dixon have given Mr. Kennedy a license, and they should give him a fair chance."

Rev. Newton was spokesman for the Law and Order committee and in his remarks said: "We all know that Alderman Gage enjoys going to church and can quote scripture. So long as Mr. Kennedy abides by the law he has a right to run his saloon. No man thinks he has fair play when he is brought up for trial. We want to know how these aldermen stand. We are here to assist them to enforce the law. A great many people think preachers have no right to interfere in such matters. It is our business to try to make the city and her people better. We are here as citizens with evidence of the violation of laws. We have two counts against the party charged. If the 'harboring of women is no violation of law why was it considered a count in the other case? The Law and Order league did not send these boys around to trap Mr. Kennedy into violating the law. We are not attacking him personally."

Alderman Gannon had a grievance and that was that a man identified with the league had stated that Dixon had the rottenest council in the state of Illinois. He defied anybody to assert that this council had not always obeyed the law. The law states, he said, that no property shall be taken away from a man without a fair trial. I will vote for nothing in which I have a doubt in my mind as to the right. The case of the O'Neil brothers was a flagrant case and they refused to obey the law after they had been notified of its violation by the officers. When the association says they are going to assist us, they should not libel us. Alderman Gannon also voiced a personal grievance concerning evidence which was presented against two respectable young men of the city who needed no endorsement to their character. I have lived in Dixon several years, he said, and never knew this city to be corrupt. On the other hand I have been told Dixon was one of the most orderly and law abiding cities of its size in the state.

Rev. Newton defended the committee, saying that no member of the committee had made such a statement about the council and the league should not be held responsible for such a statement. As to getting a man here to secure evidence, he said, the United States government does the same thing in its war against lawlessness and it is perfectly legitimate.

Mr. Gannon defended his argument by saying that he was not opposed to the movement, but he does ask for fair play. He had heard some things that hurt his feelings in regard to evidence presented.

Mr. Gage also wanted it understood that he was not opposed to the Law and Order league. He asked a fair deal and said if they would take Mr. Kennedy into court he would be with them, but didn't think the city council was the proper place to try the case.

Rev. Dr. McLean addressed the council at some length, asking if they had not produced the evidence they promised, and, if not, what is evidence? He believed as citizens they should be placed upon as good a footing as the police officers in presenting evidence of violations of law. "Are you going to hang up our evidence upon some personal affront?" he asked. "All we want," he said, "is for you to put yourself on record in the enforcement of law and order."

Attorney Erwin appeared as the attorney for Mr. Kennedy. He stated that he thought Mr. McLean intended to do the city good, but there is a question of law to be considered. He did not think a man's license could be taken from him unless it was proven that his place of business was so disorderly that it required special police provision to keep it orderly. There is a fine, he stated, to cover the case in question, but the council has not the power under the circumstances to revoke the license. The evidence has not all been taken in the case.

The motion to refer the matter to the committee was put to a vote and every alderman voted yes except Aldermen Smith and Sterling.

Routine Business.

The regular business of the council was transacted before the saloon ordinance question was presented. Bills for the month of March were audited and recommended by the finance committee to the amount of $2,092.05, which were ordered paid.

Superintendent Barry of Oakwood cemetery reported for the month accounts payable $63; cash received and paid to the city treasurer, $117.75. The report was accepted.

Chief of Police Woodruff reported ten arrests for the month; fines imposed, $52; collected and paid into the city treasury, $22; committed to jail, 4. Report was accepted.

Improvement Ordinances.

Local improvement ordinance No. 91, series of 1906, was passed, providing for the construction of macadam road and cement curb on East Morgan street, from North College to North Crawford, the estimated cost to be $1,299.84.

Also local improvement ordinance No. 92 was passed, providing for the construction of a sewer on Galena avenue beginning 140 feet south of the south line of Third street and running to the center line of Fifth street; also on Galena avenue from the center line of Seventh street to the center line of Fifth street, and from here on Fifth street to connect with the present sewer on Hennepin avenue.

The following communication from the Dixon Woman's club was read by the city clerk:

To the Mayor and City Council of the City of Dixon:

The Dixon Woman's club through its authorized committee, petitions your honorable body to grant appropriate space in Oakwood cemetery whereon to build a chapel and vault for the use and benefit of any patron of said cemetery as the season or exigency may require, the same to stand as a preserved remembrance to the achievements of the Dixon Woman's club.

Mrs. Martha Cole,
Mrs. Ira W. Lewis,
Mrs. C. F. Reuf,
Mrs. Morrison H. Vail,
Mrs. Emma R. Brookner,

Committee.
This is a very much needed improvement at the cemetery and it is a commendable act on the part of the Woman's club to undertake its erection. On motion of Alderman Gannon, seconded by Alderman Schorr, the communication was referred to the cemetery committee, which will doubtless report favorably upon it.

CULLOM APPROVES OF SPECIAL SESSION

REGRETS THAT SUPREME COURT HAS DECLARED THE LAW UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

WANTS LEGISLATURE TO PASS LAW

Says the Governor Deserves Great Credit For Courage In Calling An Extra Session.

Senator Charles H. Hughes will quite likely leave for Springfield on Sunday evening or Monday morning.

It is safe to say that Senator Hughes will be one of the active members of the legislature in forming and passing a new primary law. The senator will accede largely to the wishes of the voters in his district, and who, it is pretty generally understood, want a primary law passed, if possible.

Many of the leading members think, however, that in issuing a call for a special session of the legislature to straighten out the tangle resulting from the invalidity of his primary bill Governor Deneen may have stepped from the frying pan into the fire. Developments yesterday indicated that the decision of the supreme court was but the beginning of trouble for the state administration. How serious this trouble will be is as yet problematical, but it appears now that Governor Deneen will be obliged to make a fight not only in the legislature but in the courts.

The failure of Governor Deneen to issue a call for special elections to fill the vacancies in the legislature before convening the special session promises to invalidate any action taken by that body. It was asserted yesterday that the governor by neglecting to call the special elections had made it possible to invalidate any bill it might pass without the constitutional validity of that bill even being questioned.

A question arises as to whether the legislature which the governor has called to meet in extraordinary session is really a legislature or not. One also is raised as to the number of votes it will take to pass the new bill which the administration will present. These are but a few of the many problems presented as the result of the action taken by the governor following the decision of the supreme court.

Cullom Men Discuss Situation.

While the Cullom men are willing to support the right kind of a direct primary bill, however; they will fight against the adoption of any measure which does not provide for the same kind of primaries in all parts of the state. It was one of the principal objections to the bill framed by Governor Deneen and his supporters that it was a patchwork sort of an affair and seemed to be drawn up with a regard to strengthening the state administration politically rather than giving a direct primary. It was one of the principal objections urged to the law by the supreme court that this was the case.

What Cullom Says.

Senator Cullom was not so much surprised at the decision as the other members of the delegation for the reason he received yesterday a letter indicating the court would hold the law unconstitutional. He said:

"I regret much that the supreme court declared the primary election law to be unconstitutional. I had hoped the election could have been held under that law on April 28, thereby settling the question of who should be United States senator, as well as all other elective offices in Illinois. From the beginning I have favored a liberal primary law and have favored a provision in that law providing for a direct vote on the United States senatorship. I have all the time been willing to trust to the judgment of the people of Illinois."

"I was greatly pleased to see Gov. Deneen had called an extraordinary session of the legislature to pass a new law that would be in harmony with the decision of the supreme court. I see no reason why such a law cannot be enacted under our constitution. Other states have liberal primary election laws, and those laws have been sustained by the courts. The governor deserves great credit for the courage he manifested in calling this extra session, and I hope every friend of mine, both in and out of the legislature, will stand behind him and give him his earnest support in the passage of a new law."

Governor Deneen predicts that the special session will complete its work and adjourn by May 1.

MORE OF ARBITRATION

Western Soft Coal Men Offer Mitchell What He Offered the Hard Coal Men.

HIS PROPOSAL IS DUPLICATED

Pennsylvania Independent Bituminous Men Surrender.

Anthracite Independents Do Just the Reverse and Reject the U. M. W. Proposition—Outlook Is Gloomy.

Seranton, Pa., April 7.—It is learned here on indisputable authority that the independent anthracite operators in session at Wilkes-Barre decided against the acceptance of the arbitration proposition made by President Mitchell.

New York, April 7.—Interest in the labor troubles in the anthracite regions has been overshadowed by the proposition that came out of the west for the arbitration of the differences existing between the soft coal operators who have not yet agreed to the 1903 scale and their miners. The offer of the soft coal operators is identical, word for word, except where the term "bituminous" is substituted for "anthracite," with the one President Mitchell presented to the hard coal operators here Thursday.

Mitchell Has Nothing to Say.

There was considerable speculation as to how the miners' leader would receive his own arbitration plan for another field. He was much interested in the news, but maintained his usual silence when asked what he would do. Within an hour of the receipt of the offer from J. H. Winder, the head of the Ohio soft coal operators, he sent a reply to the effect that he had no power to act on the proposition, but would submit it to the international executive board of the union at its meeting in Indianapolis April 17.

Conditions Are Different.

Leaders of the miners' union who were at headquarters did not think the international executive board would favor the proposition. A member of the board said that conditions in the soft coal regions are much different from those in the anthracite fields. He pointed out that many operators had already signed the 1903 scale, and that the number is increasing each day.

UNCERTAINTY THE SITUATION

Anthracite Operators Not Enthusiastic Over the Arbitration Offer.

A Philadelphia dispatch says that nothing developed in the anthracite situation to clearly indicate what the outcome of next Monday's meeting between the sub-committees of the mine owners and the union leaders will be. There was no formal meeting of the operators, but most of them were in communication with one another. It was reported during the day that the arbitration offer of the miners would be flatly refused, but it was denied by those in authority that a final decision had been reached. It was also reported that the operators may accept arbitration, but with a different sort of a tribunal.

Those of the operators in the regions who could be induced to comment on the plan to arbitrate say that the same questions were contained in the demands upon which the strike of 1902 was based, and that it would be useless to go over the same ground, as conditions have not changed. Mine workers generally express the belief that a renewal of the conciliation board's award is the best that the operators will offer. In view of this belief miners' locals throughout the anthracite field have decided to exert every effort to prevent a resumption of mining until the New York conference arrive at a definite result.

NEWS FROM WESTERN MINES

Situation in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois—Winder's Proposition.

Columbus, O., April 7.—The proposition made by President Winder, of the Bituminous Coal Operators' association, to submit the issues between the operators and the miners to arbitration was the subject of much discussion among operators in this city. Many were inclined to the opinion that Winder's proposition would greatly embarrass the miners. There is no sign of a break among the association operators.

Springfield, Ill., April 7.—At a largely attended meeting of coal mine operators of the Springfield district it was unanimously decided not to sign the 1903 scale. Nearly all of the operators of this district who are members of the Coal Operators' association were present. President Perry, of the U. M. W., said: "I think that by May 1 the bulk of operators will be signed up and the strike will be at an end."

Peoria, Ill., April 7.—Twenty-five coal operators, representing 98 per cent. of the annual output of soft coal in the Eighth Illinois district, met here and adopted "stand-pat" resolutions.

Chicago, April 7.—According to the operators who have their headquarters here the following territory is completely tied up, the association operators refusing to sign the scale, and those who do sign it being, they say, unable to get the men to go to work: Ohio,

Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Iowa, Indian Territory, Arkansas and Texas.

INDEPENDENTS SURRENDER

Those in Western Pennsylvania to Sign the 1903 Scale.

Pittsburg, April 7.—Peace is now assured in the miners' situation, so far as the soft coal fields of eastern Pennsylvania are concerned. The organization of the independent operators who were holding out against granting the advance demanded by the miners, at a meeting last night decided to give up the struggle and will sign the scale. All those at the meeting were representatives of operators who had bound themselves not to sign the scale. Many other members were wavering as to entering the agreement.

These latter were not present, but it was assumed that they, too, would sign upon learning of the action of the meeting last night. At the conclusion of the proceedings a statement was given to the Associated Press, which says that "A large number of the independent operators of the Pittsburg district have signified their intention of signing the 1903 scale in justice to their customers. In so doing they fully believe that the action taken by the joint convention in January at Indianapolis was the correct position to take in view of the conditions in the coal trade for the past two years."

President Will Not Reply.

Washington, April 7.—President Roosevelt has received a telegram from John H. Winder, president of the bituminous operators of Ohio, a duplicate of which was sent to President Mitchell, of the U. M. W., proposing arbitration. At the White House it was stated that the telegram was sent to the president for his information; that no reply is expected and none will be sent.

RUSSIAN ROBBER CAUGHT

One of Those Who Looted the Mutual Credit Bank at Moscow and Got $537,500.

Zurich, Switzerland, April 6.—The ringleader of the band which robbed the Mutual Credit bank of Moscow of $437,500, March 20, has been arrested here. He is a young Russian who arrived in Zurich April 3 and had been drinking heavily.

The police took him into custody on the charge of intoxication, and found among his belongings a wallet filled with Russian bank notes. When the prisoner became sober he voluntarily confessed that he had headed the band of nineteen men who robbed the Mutual Credit bank of Moscow.

Senate and House in Brief.

Washington, April 7.—In making an effort to get the senate to agree upon a date for taking a vote on the railroad rate bill Tillman made the important statement that one week more probably would exhaust the general debate on the measure. Speeches on the bill were made by Elkins, who criticized it in many particulars; Gamble in its favor and Keen in opposition. An executive session was held. Adjourned to Monday. Some miscellaneous business was transacted.

Tariff, railway mail subsidy, denatured alcohol and enlarged postal facilities for western cities were the features of the debate in the house. The bill pending being the postoffice appropriation bill, which was entirely ignored.

One Death at a Fire.

Portland, Ore., April 7.—Fire destroyed the eighth—the top—story of the Chamber of Commerce building, and was the indirect cause of the death of Homer H. Hallock, right-of-way agent of the Willamette Traction company. Hallock was trying to climb down the light shaft from the upper to the seventh floor when he fell and was killed. The property loss is estimated at $100,000.

Peoria Man in Luck.

Boston, April 7.—Benjamin F. Ellis, of Peoria, Ill., by a decision of the state supreme court has been declared heir to one-half the estate of $600,000 of Miss Susan Ellis Murdock, of Carver, Mass. The case has been in the Massachusetts courts more than three years and distant relatives have come forward to the number of more than 100.

Epidemic of Typhoid.

Pittsburg, April 7.—Fifty-six more cases of typhoid fever were reported for the last twenty-four hours in this city. This is a total of 171 cases reported in three days. Physicians have become apprehensive, as this is the greatest number in a like period in nine years.

Uncle Sam's Claim Against Michigan.

Washington, April 7.—Among the bills passed by the senate was one providing for the settlement of a claim of $97,000 of the United States against the state of Michigan on account of St. Mary's Falls ship canal.

Forty-Nine Dead; Fifty Injured.

Nagold, Black Forest, Germany, April 7.—A revised list of casualties resulting from the collapse of the Hotel Zum Hirschen shows that forty-nine persons lost their lives and that fifty were severely injured.

He Had Promised to Work.

Greensburg, Pa., April 7.—John Wessell, a striking miner, was shot and killed while going from his home to an outbuilding. It is not known who fired the shot. Wessell had promised to go to work this morning.

Here We Come! Watch Our Smoke!

Nuevo Laredo, Tex., April 7.—John Alexander Dowrie and party arrived here this morning en route to Zion City.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the hurried-up outcrop of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundance. Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

IT IS BOUND TO COME

Time When a Revision of the Tariff Will Be Made by Congress.

CANNON EXPLAINS HIS LETTER

Wants the Time Postponed as Long as It Possibly Can Be.

Must Be General When It Is Taken Up, He Says—Illinois Democrat Attacks the "Watch Trust."

Washington, April 7.—Speaker Cannon has made an explanation of a letter recently written by him to a friend in East Liverpool, O., regarding the tariff. The letter was published and seemed to indicate that tariff revision would probably come in the future. The statement of the speaker follows: "I was not aware that I was writing a letter for publication, although I have no objection to its publication. There are many people in the country who believe that a single schedule—or a few schedules—of the tariff may be amended. This is entirely impractical, for while an amendment to a single schedule might please a single interest it could not command enough votes to enact it.

Complete Revision the Only Way.

"In my judgment nothing can be done except by a complete revision of the tariff, which would be a compromise that would command a majority vote of the 386 members of the house and the ninety senators. The enactment of such a revision, and the time necessary to adjust it to conditions, would halt production, consumption and commerce, for at least twelve months, and when the compromise is enacted as a whole it will probably not be an improvement on existing law. I do not believe a majority of the people at this time desire to interfere with the present conditions, which are the most prosperous conditions we have had in the republic to the laborer, to the farmer, to the capitalist, to the producer, and to the consumer.

In the Hands of the People.

"That the time will come when a general revision will be entered upon I have no doubt, but for the general interest of the whole country the revision should be postponed as long as possible. Congress reflects the will of the people, and the house of representatives is chosen every two years. There will be a general congressional election next November. Our friends, the enemy, insist on an immediate revision of the tariff. If a majority of the people demand immediate general revision they will elect a majority of the members of this house in favor of immediate general revision."

RAINEY ATTACKS THE TARIFF

Uses the "Watch Trust" as a Sort of "Terrible Example."

Appropos to the statement by Speaker Cannon, Rainey, in the house, opened fire on the tariff with rapid-fire vigor. Using the watch trust as an object lesson to show how protection works in behalf of monopolies the lone Democrat from Illinois in the national legislature set up a "kindergarten school for stand-pat Republicans." Rainey displayed a number of watches of domestic make which he said had been bought abroad and are now being resold in the United States.

"Why does the gentleman continue to speak of the watch trust?" asked Gardner of Massachusetts. "I am a stockholder in the Waltham company and I have no knowledge that they are in a trust."

"You may have to show that before the ways and means committee," retorted Rainey. Rainey read the letter from the speaker to a friend in Ohio, in which he stated that "tariff revision would come in the not distant future."

"How can it come if the speaker doesn't want it?" asked Sulzer.

"It will come because the next house will be Democratic," responded Rainey, which brought a round of applause from the Democratic side. Rainey said that in 1880 there were twenty-seven watch factories in the United States. Now there are but thirteen. He said there were 15 per cent. more men employed in the watch movement factories now than in 1880, and that there are 600 per cent. more women employed and 200 per cent. more children, which Rainey thought, for the perpetuity of the race, ought to be investigated.

Rainey asked the Republicans if he had been sufficiently explicit regarding the watch trust, whether he had satisfied the chairman of the committee on ways and means. When he concluded his Democratic colleagues gave him an ovation.

ELKINS ON THE RATE BILL

Stands for a Better One, He Says—Some Sharp Passages.

Washington, April 7.—When Elkins began his speech in the senate on the railway rate bill he said that he wanted a "prompt and adequate remedy for the evils, injustices, abuses and wrongs of every kind practiced by railroads, or in anyway growing out of their operation"; that he favors the pending bill, but wants it better and stronger.

He was frequently interrupted, much to his annoyance. During his speech he said that Tillman was showing a tendency to friendship for the railways. He refused to yield to Tillman, who wanted to reply at once, whereupon Tillman said that Elkins must not throw "rocks" and then refused to listen to a reply. Later he told Tillman of the bill that "you have got it fastened on you with all the disgrace attending it." Later Elkins said his remark about disgrace was intended jocularly.

Elkins referred to Tillman's daily attack on the railways, and intimated that the South Carolina senator thought he was the whole thing when it came to protecting the people. Later Tillman got an opening as he thought in which to enlarge his own views, but Elkins cut him off, objecting to the South Carolinian interjecting a speech right into the middle of Elkins'. Tillman made complaint that his head was being cut off "just behind the ears" and said that he would "get even." The West Virginia senator responded that he himself had some capacity for getting even.

ALGER'S RETIREMENT

No Surprise at Washington That the General Will Not Run Again.

Washington, April 7.—Senator Alger's determination not to be a candidate to succeed himself in the senate—announced authoritatively yesterday—does not occasion any great surprise to his friends in Washington. For some time his health has not been good. He is suffering with a weak heart, and early this week while at Atlantic City, whether he had gone for rest and recuperation, his condition for a time was said to have been serious.

The senator rallied, however, and last Monday he returned to Washington somewhat improved. Since his return to Washington he has kept to his home. He expects to resume his seat in the senate on Monday.

ADVENTISTS HAVE A REMEDY

It Is, However, Only to Abjure Uncle Sam's Service.

Washington, April 7.—Shall the government compel its employees who are of the Seventh Day Adventist faith to work on Saturday? This was the question Secretary Bonaparte was called upon to decide in the case of a charwoman who observes Saturday as the day of rest and asked to be excused from work.

Secretary Bonaparte directed that a reply be sent stating that the government cannot take religious belief into account in arranging its week's work, and is unable to excuse any employee from working on a day when the services of the employee are required.

Daily White House Conference.

Washington, April 7.—Railroad rate legislation again was under discussion at the White House. Senator Rayner, of Maryland, who has been active in his insistence upon such legislation, had a conference by invitation with the president. Following the visit of Rayner, Allison and Nelson had a talk with the president, and discussed the rate situation.

Won by a Close Margin.

Syracuse, N. Y., April 7.—In a ten-mile international walking match here Willard A. Hoagland, of Auburn, N. Y., champion of the world, defeated Tom Slater, champion of Canada, by a yard in 1:21:50.

Hadley's Fever Hangs On.

Jefferson City, Mo., April 7.—There is no change in the condition of Attorney General Hadley. He still has a fever and shows little improvement, if any.

Sweet and Sensuous

Fragrance, beauty and music made up the charms of the women of classic times, and they are the chief factors in the attractiveness of the woman of the twentieth century. The most fascinating fragrance is obtained by the society women of the time through the use of

TREKO The New French PERFUME

All the delightful fragrance of the rose garden is gathered in this highly concentrated essence of flowers. A very moderate amount of it will dissipate all odors of the person and leave a sweet, delicate breath of perfume, clinging for days.
